

Patient

I am having an elective joint replacement and I understand that the success of my recovery will be improved if I take some pre-surgery steps to prepare.

I will commit to the following:

- Selecting a coach who will be there to help me during my recovery. My coach is:

- Complete my pre-surgery joint replacement education.
- Prepare my home for return after surgery.
- Participate in group physical therapy starting the day after surgery and as ordered by my surgeon after I leave the hospital.
- Return home as soon as I am safe and able to do so. I will take responsibility to discuss the specifics of my discharge plan with a member of my care team.
- Contact a home care team member or my surgeon if concerns arise.

Coach

As a coach, I understand that the patient's success requires that I am dedicated to being helpful to them before and after their joint replacement.

I will commit to the following:

- Participation in pre-surgery joint replacement education.
- Assist in preparing the patient's home for return after surgery.
- Ensuring the patient's prescriptions are filled at discharge.
- Attend at least one group therapy session with the patient before discharge from the hospital.
- Ensuring the patient has transportation from the hospital at the time of discharge.
- Reviewing the Coach's Checklist prior to the patient's discharge from the hospital.
- Based on the recommendations of the patient's doctor, make proper arrangements to provide support for the patient at home after discharge.
- Monitoring the patient's progress and contacting the surgeon (or home care team) if concerns arise.
- Arranging transportation to any follow up care. This includes making sure the patient attends their follow-up appointment with their surgeon.
